1. Archbishop Michael plans to come so, we will be blessed with his presence.
2. There will be a Moleben Service to honor God's creation at the camp's chapel after the eclipse has passed (c. 5:00 PM).
3. Accommodation and meals are available for Orthodox Christians only, because of the limited space.
4. Comfortable accommodation is available with bedrooms and ensuites for those who would like to arrive the day before or leave the day after.
5. The event will be weather dependent but to make the trip worthwhile, lunch will be provided at a small cost. See below.
